The Ramsey County Attorney's race is technically a nonpartisan race, but candidate John Choi today trotted out some bipartisan support today for his campaign.

Showing up at an event in Arden Hills were former U.S. Attorneys David Lillehaug (a DFLer) and Tom Heffelfinger (a Republican).

Also there to endorse Choi were former state Republican Party Chair Chris Georgacas, former state DFL Chair Rick Stafford, Anoka County Attorney Bob Johnson, former Arden Hills Mayor Bev Aplikowski and current Arden Hills Mayor Stan Harpstead.

Choi, who was St. Paul city attorney until he resigned in spring to run for the county job, has been endorsed by the DFL Party. He is running in the Aug. 10 primary against attorney David Schultz and Tammy Pust, a Roseville City Council member. The top two finishers will face off in the November election.
